The screenshot shows the homepage of the Noorann website. The main heading is "Learn Arabic Language Here...". Below this, there is a video player showing a presentation slide with the same heading and a play button. To the right of the video, there is a text block describing the platform's features: "We offer you an easy, fun, effective, and fun way to learn languages. Learning lessons with multimedia, interactive games and the state-of-art linguistic technologies which upgrades the traditional ways of learning a language. Here you will learn letters, pronunciation, vocabulary, reading, writing, grammar, and conversation. Parents can monitor their student progress. Moms and schools can setup classrooms and use our lesson. We have full Arabic Language support with more languages to come."

On the left side of the page, there is a vertical navigation menu with icons for Home, Home Page, About Us, Contact Us, and a list of subjects: English, Urdu, Hindi, Arabic, Persian, and Chinese. On the right side, there are two prominent buttons: "Register for Free Lessons" (red) and "Sign In to your account" (green). Below these buttons, there are several links for users to register, sign up, or learn more about the platform's features and subjects.
